

Indefinite pronouns

1 Rewrite these sentences including the words in bold.

- Would like a cup of tea? anyone

- Who works here will get an extra day's holiday this year. everyone

- On the beach in summer is very crowded. everywhere

- There is wrong with my computer today. something

- I'm sorry but there isn't we can do to help you. anything

- I think there is in the city where you can play badminton. somewhere

2 Complete the conversation with the words in the box.

anything | anywhere | everyone
everything | someone | somewhere

- Andy: Is there (1) _____ special you'd like to go this summer?
- Trudy: Yes, there is. There's (2) _____ in Greece I'd love to go to – Athens!
- Andy: (3) _____ I work with went to Greece last year. They loved it.
- Trudy: Yes, (4) _____ I know who's been there had a great time.
- Andy: Is there (5) _____ special you'd like to do there?
- Trudy: Yes! I want to see all the historical places and eat (6) _____ !

Relative clauses: who, which, that

3 Choose the two correct words in each sentence.

- This is the man which / that / who works with your brother.
- Is there anything here who / that / which is cheaper than £100?
- I work for a company that / which / who makes furniture.
- There are six people who / which / that work in my office at the moment.
- The factory that / which / who is at the end of the road has over a hundred members of staff.
- The food that / who / which we had on holiday was really good.

4 Match to make sentences.

- That is the boy _____
- This is the restaurant _____
- The doctor _____
- That's the book _____
- The film _____

- that you gave me for my birthday.
- which we saw last night was about life in China.
- which serves Mexican and Spanish food.
- who helped carry my shopping home.
- who gave me the medicine last week was really good.

Unit round-up

5 Choose the correct words.

Working in a museum

I work in a museum (1) which / who is one of the largest and most popular museums in London – the Science Museum. It's free for (2) someone / everyone to visit, and over three million people come here every year.

There are five floors that are filled with over 300,000 things to see, but it would be impossible to see (3) everything / anything in one visit! Some of the most important things (4) that / who you should see include the first steam engine, a real space ship and some of the first computers.

On the last Wednesday of each month, the museum opens until late and organises special events with music, talks, and sometimes even discos! These events are really popular.

My job is to give information and to help visitors (5) which / who are lost or have a question. I really enjoy it and I learn (6) everything / something new every day. Is there (7) anything / everything that I don't like? Well, I get quite tired sometimes because I have to walk around the museum all day. But I never get bored because (8) anywhere / everywhere I go, there is always something interesting to see.